NEW YORK.

Railway Controversy — Dissatisfaction with the Freight Lines—Italian Boys Asking Protection—Murder at a Wake—City Depositories to be Sued for Interest.

NEW YORK, August 1, 1873.

Administration Suit.

In the case of Mrs. Mary C. Leroy Goodrich, administratrix of her late husband, against T. A. Lane, counsel for the estate, Judge Pratt has given a decision that if the plaintiff consents to reference and proceeds with the trial, Lane shall deposit, pending the trial, the fifty-seven thousand dollars which he paid himself as per centage out of the estate.

Italian Boys Asking Protection.

Two Italian boys have appeared before the Consul General of Italy, and asked that they be protected against their padrone, Michebe Carcone, whom they charge with having inflicted upon them the most barbarous cruelties. The boys were given by their parents to Carcone, for a consideration of forty dollars a year, and that they be well taken care of and be taught music.

A warrant was issued to-day for the arrest of Carcone, but he seems to have left the city. One of the boys, sixteen years of age, says, in his statement made under oath to the Italian Consul, that he was, by a private contract between his father and Carcone, given to the latter for a term of five years, to perform, under him the profession of ambulant musician, with a remuneration of sixty ducats, equal to about fifty dollars in gold, to the end of said term, binding himself to use kind treatment and to instruct the boy in the profession of musician. The boy started from Italy under the guide of Carcone, and arrived in New York two months ago, where Carcone, instead of teaching the boy to play the harp, compelled him from the first to go about the streets as a boot black, instructing him, under a menace and severe threats, to tell anybody that might question him that he was living in New York with his own father, and not with a padrone. Whenever the boy does not bring home to the padrone sufficient money to satisfy him he is ill-treated and severely beaten with punches, s'aps, &c., and at one time the padrone caught him by the neck, pressing him with his fingers as though he meant to strangle him, besides giving him a bite on the nose.

Railway Controversy.

The railroad controversy is continued, and manufacturers and shippers are expressing their dissatisfaction with the freight lines. Benj. B. Sherman, Chairman of the Committee of Seventy and President of the New York Sugar Refining Company, states that unfair discriminations of the railway companies in favor of Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore, and against New York, were the principal grounds of complaint on the part of New York merchants, and that they were determined to put an end to such unfairness. He says that railroad corporations must no longer be permitted to water their stock three or four times, and then charge eight per cent. As soon as cool weather begins public meetings will be held and the subject pressed upon the attention of the people. Other heavy shippers say the contest is a continuation of the fight of last year, and has been brought up at this time in anticipation of the fall trade. Agents of railroads and forwarding companies state that the shipments of freight are lower now than they have been for a long time. First-class freight is now charged seventy-five cents per 100 pounds to Chicago, and proportionately to other points—Chicago being the basis.

Application for an Injunction Denied.

Judge Pratt, in the Supreme Court, has denied the application for an injunction made on behalf of Stephen H. Alden, to restrain his recently divorced wife from recovering fifty thousand dollars in bonds, which Alden alleges he was forced to surrender while under arrest, and to be freed from the companionship of the Sheriff's officers.

City Depositories to be Sued.

The Broadway National Bank, Tenth National Bank and Tradesmen's Bank, having refused to comply with the demand of the Chamberlain for the payment of accrued interest on the city's deposits, the Chamberlain notified the Corporation Counsel to commence suits for the recovery of all interest now due by them.

A Firm's Books Seized for Alleged Swindling.

The books of A. C. Downing & Co. were seized to-day by the Customs officers, on a charge of smuggling. The firm state that the charges were only against the old members of the concern, it having passed into new hands since the alleged smuggling took place, over two years ago.

Murder at a Wake.

Isidore Konkie, of Crawford, New Jersey, got drunk while holding a wake over the body of his newly born infant, and brutally cut his wife, who was lying sick in bed, from the effects of which she died. Konkie was arrested.

Konkie says he was only brushing away the flies at the time the fatal blow was inflicted.

Business Failure.

Jno. A. Botts, real estate agent, Brooklyn, failed to-day, owing to connections with the late President Mills, of the Brooklyn Trust Company. His liabilities are $700,000.

The Hoboken Bank Suspended.

The Hoboken bank suspended payment this afternoon under the pressure of a two days' run. The defalcation of Kienen, the absconding cashier, was discovered to be $55,000.

Steamers Seized for Taxes.

Late this afternoon the Sheriff seized two steamers of the Pacific Mail Company on suits begun by the city to recover $126,000 taxes.

THE GALLOWS.

Two Murderers Hanged.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 1.—Nicholson and Hallahan, the murderers of Mrs. Lampley, were executed at five minutes past ten this forenoon.

Immediately after breakfast, a prayer meeting was held in Nicholson's cell, at which both prisoners, their spiritual advisers and a few members of the Y. M. C. A., were present. Several hymns were sung, after which Nicholson led in prayer. The hymn "Rock of Ages" was then sung. At 8:45 A. M. the prisoners entered the director's room, where an hour was passed in devotional exercises, consisting of singing, praying and short religious addresses by the prisoners, who were quite calm and who expressed their confidence in Christ. Sacrament was then administered.

The prisoners ascended the steps of the platform with a steady tread, both smiling. Arriving on the platform Sheriff Kane said that Hallahan desired to make a few remarks.

The latter stepped forward and said: "Gentlemen and brothers, I acknowledge that my sentence is just. I am perfectly willing to give up my life for the crime I have committed. There is nothing like Christianity and brotherly love." He returned thanks to the warden and deputies, and said: "I die in the faith."

Nicholson next advanced and said: "My punishment is just, and I warn you all against the love of money and against evil companions. I commit my dear wife and precious children to the hands of a merciful God."

At the conclusion of Nicholson's remarks, Hallahan again advanced and said: "I freely forgive all my enemies, and hope they will forgive me." Nicholson responded: "And I also return the same."

The prisoners then took their positions on the platform, Nicholson on the west or left hand, and Hallahan on the right of the platform. Sheriff Kane then adjusted the nooses on their necks. The prisoners took leave of their spiritual advisers, and after ten minutes' silent prayer, the drop fell and the execution was accomplished. Hallahan's body exhibited convulsions, but Nicholson died without a struggle.

STATE ITEMS.

DOGS must now be muzzled in Lancaster, if they want to remain alive.

KATE FAULSTICK, who was shot by her lover, near Harmony some time ago, is recovering.

A NUMBER of the Allentown city fathers are on a visit to Harrisburg, where they are being well received.

MR. SNYDER, who was poisoned in Butler by his wife and her paramour Foreman, some time ago, is so far recovered as to be able to be about.

THE Harrisburg colored people celebrated emancipation day yesterday. Gen. T. Morris Chester, and Senator Barbour, both of New Orleans, made addresses.

THE Zouaves company of Monongahela City are reorganizing as a Light Infantry company, and will be newly uniformed. They intend to go into the Division encampment in October.

BEDFORD wants her new Narrows road between Colerain and Snakes Spring township. It thinks the one road now approaching the town is quite insufficient for her business. She asks her business men to see to it that it is built.

SOME rascal one night this week came to the barn of Mr. Good, on his farm in Providence township, Lancaster county, and cut off the tails of all his horses. One of the animals was very valuable.

ON Tuesday a mad poodle was killed by Mr. Christian Froyer in Lancaster. The animal had jumped into the parlor of his residence and terribly frightened the inmates. He ran down into the cellar, where he was dispatched by the gentleman with an ax.

JAMES BRENNAN, Sr., met with a fatal accident at the Ellengowan colliery at St. Nicholas. A fall of coal crushed his leg, injuring it so badly that amputation was performed without any good effect, as the unfortunate man died shortly after the operation.

JOHN CROWLEY, Sr., of Annin Creek, whilst engaged driving a yoke of steers, with a load of hay, into a barn, was struck by the rack and crushed against the barn beam. He was so severely injured that he died a day or two afterward. Mr. Crowley was a highly esteemed citizen.

THE Butler Citizen says: A boy named Theopocritus Bumbergardenpugin, aged 14 years, has been sick ever since he was 4 years old. That name ought to make any boy sick. It is a wonder he has lived up to this time. He certainly can be no relation to the editor of that journal.

THE Butler county Citizen says that the house of Mr. Henry Dickey, in the northwest part of the town, was struck by lightning during the frequent storms on Monday last, the fluid entering near a chimney, passing down and through the house, doing some injury thereto but to none of the persons within.

ONE of those unmitigated nuisances known as tramps stole a gold watch valued at $150 from J. Wilson Greenland, Esq., of Huntingdon, on Friday. The watch was in the pocket of Mr. G.'s vest, which garment had been taken off and hung on a porch in the rear of the law-office of J. Simpson Africa, Esq. The thief was not captured.

FROM all parts of the State comes the wail that the new house bug is devastating carpets. He is of a dark color, less than half an inch in length, and covered with short hair. He begins on the edge of the carpet and can be readily detected. Fine salt or fine cedar chips sprinkled on the edges of the carpets will preserve them against this little nuisance.

A TERRIBLE homicide resulted from a caucus to elect delegates to the County Convention which was to be held in Ridgway, Elk county, on the 21st ult. The caucus was not harmonious, and two men, named Phaley and Bromley, on their return home, entered into a dispute over their respective candidates, which culminated upon reaching home in Bromley's striking Phalen on the head with such force as to cause his death.

THE CHURCH HILL TRAGEDY.

The Cause of the Trouble—Horrible Treatment of the Italians—Arrest of Ringleaders—Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

The Mahoning Register, published at Youngstown, Ohio, says the outbreak which took place at Church Hill, on Sunday afternoon, July 27th, surpasses, in the horrible character of its details, anything that we have ever heard of before. The records of lynch and mob law, and of the brutal frenzies of the lower classes of Continental Europe, although they contain the record of many cruel things, are able to furnish nothing, which for cruel, and so far as can be judged from present indications, unprovoked brutality, can equal some of the details of this horrible and murderous riot. The immediate cause of the trouble was a quarrel which took place between one of the old miners named William Trotter, and an Italian whose name is known to the citizens about Church Hill, as John Church. How this quarrel commenced is not known, further than that Trotter was drunk and quarrelsome. The quarrel was probably augmented by several more of the miners, and Church, seeing that he was overpowered, ran for the house where the rest of the Italians were, and when he got to the door, cried to be let in. While the door was being opened, he turned and defended himself, and here it was that Trotter was stabbed. This is the hypothesis suggested by the facts known, and which are corroborated by several admissions of the miners. Church is now dead; murdered by a brutality that has no equal in all the annals of crime, but his murderers, in letting out the fact that Trotter was stabbed at the house, furnished strong circumstantial evidence to show that Church stabbed him in self defense. The wound which Trotter received was indeed a fearful one. The knife entered at one side of his neck, and went clear through, narrowly missing the jugular vein and carotid artery, and partially severing the spinal cord in its course. The wound was so severe that at first it was thought that he could not live longer than a few moments, but at this writing he is still alive, although the injury to the spinal cord has partially paralyzed him.

The rioters attempted to burn the Italians in the house, but afterwards concluded to open the door and kill them as they came out of the burning building. The details of the treatment the murdered man received are brutal in the extreme.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Upon visiting Church Hill on Tuesday evening, we found that the following persons had been arrested and sent to Warren, where their preliminary examination, upon a charge of murder, commenced on Wednesday: David D. Morris, Benj. R. Davis, John Morgan, John Nell, Wm. Baxter, Hugh Trotter, Archibald Cowan, Wm. Burnell, John Watson, John M. Williams, Wm. Morrison, John Ward, Matthew Morrison, Thomas Morrison, Alex. Hodge. There are three or four more to be arrested: among them Wm. Parden, and the man who struck Church with the gun, and who has not yet been identified.

On Tuesday evening, word was brought to Church Hill that the body of a dead Italian was lying in the woods near the Niles Coal Co.'s bank. From the information given to the authorities there, it seemed that the body was there on Monday, but gave no information of the fact, until it was discovered on Tuesday, by a farmer's boy.

Late on Tuesday night the Coroner's jury brought in a verdict to the effect that the Italian came to his death by blows given by Wm. Parden, John Watson, Joen Neal, Alex. Hodge, Hugh Trotter, Wm. Baxter, and others, known and unknown to the jury.

RAILWAY COMPANIES.

Grand Crusade for Cheap Transportation.

The Philadelphia Ledger says the great leading railway companies of the country seem to be sharply beset. The "granges" of the West and the interior, generally, are about to be joined by the shippers from the East to the interior, in a grand crusade for cheap transportation. The commercial interests of the large Atlantic seaboard cities are much exercised in this regard, and a number of meetings have been held recently at New York, resulting in a combination of the principal trades in a movement designed to co-operate with the movement of producers now in progress in the West, to the end that increased facilities may be had, and that the abuses of the present system may be remedied. A committee has been appointed to prepare a call for a mass meeting, to be held at the Cooper Institute, New York, early in September. Prominent among the defects and abuses in the present railway system mentioned are:

First. The watering of stock until the nominal or fictitious capital upon which the commerce of the country is taxed to pay dividends is estimated to exceed in amount our entire national debt.

Second. The squandering of millions upon millions of dollars, wrung from the people, to corrupt their legislators.

Third. The granting by railroad companies of special privileges to numerous "fast freight lines" which maintain extensive business organizations—the cost of which ultimately falls on the producer or consumer—thus making the margin of transportation a constant barrier to the expansion of our trade.

Fourth. The discriminations which exist against New York in favor of Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston, which, in many branches of trade, are being seriously felt.

MAIL ROBBER CAUGHT.

A Thief Caught With a Bag of Mail Matter This Morning.

Patrick Murphy was arrested by officer John Woods in an alley near the Rush House, at three o'clock this morning, having in his possession a bag of mail matter, consisting of the early edition of the morning newspapers, which he had stolen off a United States mail wagon. He was confined in the lock-up. He will be turned over to the proper authorities to-day.

M'Henry & Hood, 365 Liberty street, the well-known grain firm, advertise for sale in to-day's paper their first arrival of the new crop of wheat in this market. We are pleased to learn that the crop of winter wheat has been generally secured in good condition and is of good quality. Having an extensive acquaintance in the best grain growing sections of the Western States, long experience and ample facilities, they are as well prepared for furnishing supplies of grain as any house we know of and their straight forward dealing is such as to recommend them to all who wish to purchase.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Personal and Otherwise.

REV. W. C. FALCONER has declined the call to the Presbyterian Church of Uniontown.

THE Rev. M. W. Dallas will preach in the Emory M. E. church, East Liberty, Sabbath morning, at 10½ o'clock.

THE venerable Rev. Dr. William Preston is summering at that beautiful and delightful place, "Kenwood," near New Brighton, Pa.

DR. I. C. PERSHING, President of the Pittsburgh Female College, will assist in the dedication services of the New Methodist Church at Tiffin, Ohio.

REV. G. W. EASTER has accepted the Rectorship of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church, Sewickly, Pa., and entered upon his duties.

REV. MR. VAN DE MARK, formerly pastor of the Universalist Church, on Grant street, of this city, has recently accepted a call from San Francisco.

THE Pittsburgh Ministerial Association will meet in the Third Methodist Church, Pittsburgh, on the last Wednesday in August, beginning at 10 o'clock, A. M.

J. J. MURRAY, D.D., pastor of the First Methodist church, Pittsburgh, is attracting large congregations, and the old charge is flourishing in his care.

BISHOP SIMPSON has been seriously ill at his Summer home at East Long Branch, but by recent private advices reports he is better and hopes soon to resume his duties.

THERE will be no service in the Wylie Avenue Church until the 3d sabbath of this month, on which date they hope (D. V.) to be able to enter their new church edifice.

THE next session of the Pittsburgh District S. S. Convention will be held in the Third Methodist church, Pittsburgh, on the evenings of August 27-28, 1873, beginning at 7½ o'clock.

BELLEVUE METHODIST (PROTESTANT CHURCH, Rev. Wm. McCracken, pastor, contributed, recently, after a sermon by Rev. Wm. Alcott, $681 to the Embury Monument Fund.

THE erection of the house of worship for the Presbyterian Church of Bellevue will be begun without delay. This is an enterprise which should be encouraged by liberal contributions.

THE next session of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Church will convene in the First Methodist Church, South Side, on the first Wednesday in September next, at 9½ o'clock, A. M.

THE Church Journal (Episcopal) denounces the pernicious practice of clergymen closing their churches and taking a rest during the hot summer months, thus turning the cities over to the devil.

THE Susquehanna District Ministerial Association of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church will convene at Gettysburg, Indiana county, on the 5th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M.

REV. J. H. WHITE, formerly pastor of Smithfield street M. E. Church, of this city, died recently in Mount Pleasant, Iowa. A short time before he died he wrote to his brother-in-law, in Marietta, Ohio, "I am floating down the stream, shouting as I float!"

REV. DR. J. A. SWANEY, formerly stationed at Arch Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Allegheny City, and for several years engaged in mission work, under the auspices of the American Seamen's Bethel Society in Brazil, is expected to arrive in this country soon.

THE following Presbyterian ministers are rusticating: Rev. David Elliott, D. D., is spending the summer at Sligo, Clarion county, Pa; Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D. D., is at Atlantic City; Rev. David McKinney, D. D., Rev. W. W. McKinney, Rev. A. A. Hodge, D. D., and Rev. W. H. Hornblower, D. D., are at Narragansett, Rhode Island.

MR. A. D. MCHENRY, of Canton, Ohio, the young gentleman who delivered the Greek Salutatory at the late commencement of Mt. Union College, has been appointed a missionary to the Methodist Episcopal Missions in India, and goes out shortly in company with Rev. Henry Mansell, of India, formerly a member of the Pittsburgh Conference.

REV. J. D. HERR, formerly of Pittsburgh, who lately tendered his resignation of the pastorate of the Baptist Church in Oil City, has withdrawn the same and at a special meeting of the church and society Wednesday evening, the vote accepting the pastor's resignation was rescinded. Mr. Herr will now remain in the charge probably till the completion of the year.

THE congregation having given their pastor a short vacation, there will be no services in the Central United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, to-morrow, nor until the third Sabbath of the month. The Sabbath School, however, will meet as usual, at 1½ o'clock, P. M., and it is the desire of the superintendent that there be a full attendance of both teachers and scholars.

THE Wylie Avenue Sabbath School held their second annual picnic on Wednesday of this week at McFarland's Grove. The day was exceedingly fine and the occasion was one of rare enjoyment to all. The School marched in order to the depot, and their number, appearance and excellent order elicited the warmest remarks of commendation from all. This school is one of the largest in the city, and has attained an unusual success in such a short history.

THE Presbyterian says that a wealthy capitalist of the Seventeenth ward, Pittsburgh, Pa., has made a donation of six hundred acres of land in Scott county, Tennessee, toward the erection of a Presbyterian church in said ward, on condition that the name of the benefactor will not be made public, or in any manner referred to in reference to the gift. This land contains inexhaustible quantities of iron ore and stone coal, and in addition a rich vein of silver ore has been discovered, which is now in progress of development, specimen samples of which will be on exhibition shortly. This donation is variously estimated at from ten thousand dollars and upwards, and is thought sufficient to pay the entire cost of the church, which is now in progress of construction, provided the trustees will take good care of their trust."

DEATH IN A VAULT.

A Child Smothered to Death in a Privy Vault.

Yesterday morning, between nine and ten o'clock, a little fourteen months old son of Mr. Wm. Ferguson, residing at No. 43 Asylum alley, near Jackson street, Second ward, Allegheny, was sitting near the door of the house playing. Shortly after the child tottered off and was nowhere to be found. Search was instituted, but no traces of it could be found. The neighbors were aroused and a general search was instituted throughout the town, but it proved fruitless. Last evening about seven o'clock some one suggested that it might have crept into the privy and fell into the vault. A search proved this conjecture but too true, for there, far down in the filth, was found the child, quite dead. It must have crept up on to the seat and thus fallen through, and, as the vault is very deep, its cries were not heard, and the child was smothered before any one could imagine where it had gone. The parents were nearly heart-broken on finding the child. Coroner West has been notified to hold an inquest.

Allegheny Police Committee.

The Police Committee of Allegheny Councils met last evening, and considered the charges that were pending against the suspended officer Trautman, for refusing to make an arrest when ordered, and playing cards in a saloon while on duty. The Committee ordered the officer to be re-installed as there was no evidence produced to sustain the charges. The Committee decided to recommend Councils to appoint four more patrolmen, two for the Tenth and two for Eleventh wards, both recently annexed.

The pay roll for July, amounting to $3,544,95 was approved by the Committee.

A Timely Rescue.

Last evening about six o'clock a horse, upon which was seated a little boy, ran away on Sherman avenue, Allegheny. In turning the corner of Ohio street, Chief of Police Clark, who was on a car, saw the horse and jumped off in order to head him off, but the horse shied to one side and threw the little fellow on the track immediately in front of the car. Chief Clark with rare presence of mind at once seized the child and dragged it from the track, just as it was about to be trampled upon by the horses, and thus saved it any serious injury.

Summer Diseases.

There are many diseases incident to the summer months which might by proper precaution be warded off. Pure whiskey and brandy are preventatives of many gastric disorders, and by their stimulative effect, brace and tone the system so that it is able to withstand the depressing influence of the "hot season." But these should be pure, or if not so, then they will not be medicinal. And we must in all conscience say to our readers that they can procure liquors of genuine, medicinal purity at No. 87 Second avenue, the long established and reputable house of Dillinger & Stevenson. They have the oldest, richest and purest whiskies and brandies. An importation of the vintage of 1858, being fifteen years old, is perfectly mellow with age. All the first class brands of whiskies and brandies always on hand and the very best ales, such as Bass', Youngers and Flowers & Son's ales. The finest Sherries ever imported, and a very fine quality of old Port and Rhine Wines, all of which are offered at fair figures.

YESTERDAY afternoon, E. J. Noble appeared before Alderman McMasters and made an information charging Jacob Scheid, Lewis and Joseph Delmont, George House, John Thomas, Michael Redman, Joe. Long, Hugh Zally and Edward Chambers, with malicious trespass. He alleges, that these men came into his orchard, killed his young trees, stole his green fruit, and destroyed fences and [illegible]. Warrants issued.

THE National Commercial Convention will meet in this city on the first Tuesday in September next.

THE crop reports speak very unfavorably of the cotton prospect. It is estimated that in the principal cotton growing region, not more than half the usual crop will be obtained.

THOMAS R. HALLOHAN and Joshua Nicholson, the murderers of an aged lady named Mary Ann Lampley, about six months since, were executed in Baltimore, yesterday. But few person outside the prison officers and members of the press witnessed the execution.

SEVERAL of the Russian women who have been pursuing their medical studies at Zurich, Switzerland, but who were ordered by the Czar to return home, have arrived at New York. They report that they have been entirely misrepresented, in the several reports which refer to them as having committed excesses, or as being involved in Communal agitations. They are spoken of as exceptionally intelligent young ladies.

THE Germans are actively at work creating a navy. One iron clad, and one corvette are nearly completed—the latter being quite done. Others are in progress, the entire list making up a naval force of twenty iron clads, besides wooden vessels. It is not proposed, however, to build up an aggressive naval power, but to have enough vessels for purposes of defense. The army is more popular in Germany than is the navy.

WILLIAM J. OVENS, who was tried for the murder of Colonel Riddle, a few years ago, and who claimed to have been selected by the Republicans of the Fourth Legislative District of Philadelphia, as their candidate for the Legislature, has been declared not entitled to the nomination, and the same has been awarded to Mr. Harry O'Neill, his competitor at the primaries. This decision of the City Executive Committee will give unbounded satisfaction to the entire Republican party of the city and State.

THE CZAR of Russia has sent orders to the General commanding his troops at Khiva, to proceed against the various Turcoman tribes which have been troublesome to the Russians for some time past. This is interpreted as involving a purpose to extend operations into Affghanistan, and toward British India. While it is not thought that the Russian Emperor desires to invade or even threaten the British power in India, it is believed that he will gather under his banner the various wandering tribes of Central Asia, and extend his conquests to the borders of British India.

FOR some days past agents of the insurgent leaders of San Domingo have been in New York city purchasing arms, and a recent shipment of one thousand stand has been made to a point within the control of the revolutionists. The opposition to Baez is said to be daily growing stronger through the objection of the Dominicans to the Samana Bay Company, which, it is alleged, has failed to fulfill any of the promises for the improvement of the territory ceded. It is only occupied in stripping the country of its valuable products, and exporting them without making any return in the form of new buildings, local improvements, or other works designed to aid and advance the material progress of the country. In the battle of June 18th, at Carneró, according to private advices, Baez's troops left one hundred dead upon the field, and since the battle desertions from his army are frequent.

IT IS ASTONISHING how persistent certain journals are in urging that the President proposes to nominate Senator Conkling to the position of Chief Justice in place of Mr. Chase, deceased. The sixth section of the first article of the Constitution declares that "no Senator or Representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased, during such time." The fact that Mr. Conkling's term of office expired on the 4th of March, does not, in our judgment, affect the clause of the Constitution above quoted. He was recognized and sworn in for the term to which he now holds. Admitting that the rule does not apply here, it still is true, that the aim of the provision of the Constitution, above quoted, was to prevent those who voted for the increase of certain emoluments to enjoy the offices thus benefited. If such a rule does not apply to Mr. Conkling, we know not where it will apply.

WE OF THIS country will be compelled to attend closely to duty if we do not wish our laurels taken from us, in the matter of education. We have made rapid progress for several years, but since the war with France, Germany has been devoting great care and attention to its system of education. The number and pay of the teachers have been increased; the attendance of pupils is made compulsory; the training of the teachers is carefully looked after; the way in which money is to be raised and be expended for school purposes; all this is prescribed by the highest authority, and their orders are enforced by a system of thorough and minute inspection, which is made by the State alone. The Public Schools in Germany are even yet as plentiful as our own, in proportion to the population, but it is doubtful if ours are as well arranged, as thorough in their instruction and as useful, for we have not yet succeeded in uniting our Public Schools and our Colleges and Universities into one great system of education, controlled by the Government, and gradually raising the standard of instruction, so that the Colleges can be recruited from the Schools, and the Schools made great reservoirs, whence boys made ready for business or for trades or for professions can be taken already prepared for their next step, either into active, hard work, or for further study and training. We lack the system and connectedness which prevail in the educational system of Germany. We suggest whether we cannot improve in these particulars.

RECREATION.

Watering place notes, in the various papers, represent the hotels and boarding houses as well patronized this Summer, Vienna not having interfered with the prosperity of the several places of home resort. A peculiar feature of the present season is, that the people of one city do not aggregate at one particular resort or hotel, but are scattered far and wide. Pittsburghers have wandered away as far as Boston, and may be found at Cape May, Atlantic City, Long Branch and Newport, as well as at Chatauqua Lake. Distance is not particularly thought of. Once prepared to go, and baggage checked, and it is perfectly easy to go to the most remote watering places. Even the wild woods, beautiful lakes and mosquito haunted regions of the Adirondacks have representatives from our city. Thus far and near they go, seeking health and pleasure.

It is well that this can be done. Even when the labor performed is not severe, the one perpetual round of duty makes it necessary that occasional relaxation should be taken, if we would not injure health and become prematurely old. There are those who are so methodical in their habits, and even in their temperaments, that they seem to plod on, year by year, in one unceasing round of duties, without appreciably suffering or wear. But it is not so with the mass of persons. They may be compelled, by circumstances, to remain at the post of duty, but they pay the penalty of a shortened life. Where time can be taken, and thorough leisure and recreation can be enjoyed, they should be. The change of scenery, new associations, acquaintances, the rest of mind, or the refreshing that comes from new subjects or novel surroundings, these serve to rest, recuperate, and fortify the system. We can, if we will, lay in a stock of health.

As a people, we of this country labor too continuously and too hard. There is a nervous activity, attributed by some to the atmosphere, which leads our business men to draw largely on their life force. Even when the competitions of business do not require it, the same propensity to feverish activity prevails, and very many go wearied to their couches at night, and reach the end of the week exhausted. Sunday, in place of being a day of changed and agreeable occupation, so restful to body and mind, is really devoted to absolute inertia, to recuperate the exhausted life force. Thus it goes, and it is not strange that so many suddenly die from diseases superinduced by overwork. To all this the Summer excursion is the safety valve. Even if we may not get rich so rapidly, it is better in every sense to take time for proper recreation as we go along. It is folly to think, as a rule, of doing our life work and enjoying leisure when old age is drawing on. By that time habit is fixed, and enjoyment is difficult to find.

We have, in this country, such a variety of scenery, such diversified attractions, that whatever our taste may be it can be gratified. Those who love the rugged mountain scenery, can find resorts in various parts of the country suited to their taste. Those who incline to the wild and picturesque in nature can be readily favored,—and those who desire the seaside, or lake resorts, can also realize their wishes. The fashionables can easily learn where those of their taste resort, and those who prefer quiet and comfort can easily gratify their taste. Thus everything invites, and there is nothing but time and means that need prevent recuperative trips to the various points of interest and pleasure. All that is healthful, invites to go. Blessed are they who can, and sorrowful may those be who cannot breathe the restful, quiet country air.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE Richmond Enquirer states, on the authority of a personal friend of Colonel Mosby, that he will support the conservative candidate for Governor of Virginia, whoever he may be.

REPORTS from primary elections in Virginia indicate that General Kemper is carrying a majority of delegates to the Conservative State Convention which will meet at Richmond on Wednesday next, and that he will probably be nominated for Governor.

THE papers everywhere are commenting upon Mr. Groesbeck's letter. The World thinks any new organization would still be controlled by Democrats, and questions the advantage of a change of name. It says: "The ostrich, which buries his head in the sand in the hope of concealing his body was never accounted a wise bird."

THE Greensburg Tribune and Herald announces Colonel George F. Huff, of Greensburg, as a candidate for State Treasurer. We are personally acquainted with Colonel Huff, and agree with the Herald that no better man could be nominated for that important office. Our own delegate to the Convention is instructed to support Hon. Samuel Henry, of Johnstown, but in case of Mr. Henry's failure to secure the nomination, we have no hesitation in saying that we would sooner see Colonel Huff nominated than any other man in the State.—Bedford Inquirer.

THE Democrats of Northumberland county have nominated the following ticket, viz: Senator, A. H. Dill; Assembly, Dr. A. T. Dewitt; Treasurer, John Haag; Register and Recorder, L. Shipman; Commissioner, P. S. Reitz; Jury Commissioner, D. F. Swartz; Auditor, Joseph Eisley was nominated by acclamation. Mr. D. C. Dissinger was appointed a Senatorial Delegate to State Convention, and W. T. Forsyth, Legislative Delegate. Resolutions were passed approving the course of Mr. A. H. Dill, in the State Senate; also that of Messrs. Dewitt and Ammerman, in the Legislature.

A DISPATCH to the Baltimore Sun thus outlines an alleged political scheme: Vice President Wilson's health will prevent his presiding over the Senate; Senator Carpenter will, therefore, assume his duties; but the Senator's time expires in March, 1875, and he fears that his back-pay record will be a hindrance to his re-election; he therefore deems it best to remove his most formidable opponent, and so advocates the appointment of Senator Howe to the Chief Justiceship, with the idea that Representative Washburne will be made Senator in his place, thus removing one of the most prominent candidates from his own contest.

POLITICAL CONVENTIONS of more or less importance are beginning to get numerous again. Thus far calls have been issued as follows:

Wednesday, Aug. 6—New York Colored Republican State Convention, in Saratoga; Virginia Conservative State Convention, in Richmond; Ohio Democratic State Convention, in Columbus; Massachusetts Labor Reform, in Lowell.

Tuesday, Aug. 12—Maryland Democratic State Convention, in Baltimore; Maine Democratic State Convention, in Portland.

Wednesday, Aug. 13—Pennsylvania Republican State Convention, in Harrisburgh.

Wednesday, Aug. 20—Texas Republican State Convention, in Dallas.

Wednesday, Aug. 27—National Temperance Convention, at Saratoga Springs; Pennsylvania Democratic State Convention, in Wilkesbarre; Wisconsin Republican State Convention, in Madison; Mississippi Republican State Convention, in Jackson.

Friday, Sept. 11—Maryland Republican State Convention, in Frederick.

Origin of a Familiar Line.

A correspondent of Harper's Bazar writes that the oft-quoted line, "Though lost to sight, to memory dear," originated with Ruthven Jenkyns, and was first published in the Greenwich Magazine for Marines, in 1701 or 1702. As a literary curiosity we quote the whole poem:

Sweetheart, good-bye! the flutt'ring sail
Is spread to waft me far from thee,
And soon before the fav'ring gale
My ship shall bound upon the sea.
Perchance, all desolate and forlorn,
These eyes shall miss thee many a year;
But unforgotten every charm—
Though lost to sight, to mem'ry dear.

Sweetheart, good-bye! one last embrace!
O cruel fate! two souls to sever!
Yet in this heart's most sacred place
Thou, thou alone, shalt dwell forever.
And still shall recollection trace
In Fancy's mirror, ever near,
Each smile, each tear, that form, that face—
Though lost to sight, to mem'ry dear.

AFTER numerous experiments under the auspices of the Societe des Agriculteurs de France for creating artificial clouds to protect the grapevines from frost, a success is reported from the south of France. The clouds are produced by the smoke from small cauldrons of coal-tar, placed a short distance from each other, and about 260 yards from the vines, in the direction of the wind. As soon as the grass shows signs of frost, the cauldrons are ignited, and allowed to burn until an hour after sunrise, changing them if the wind changes. The means is reported as entirely efficacious for the purpose for which it was discovered.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

THE Great Eastern left Heart's Content on Thursday evening to repair the cable of 1865.

THE next annual Convention of the German Teachers' Association will be held in Detroit.

THE south building of the Norwich (Conn.) Bleaching and Calendering works were burned yesterday morning. Loss $75,000; insured.

"FLORA" writes to the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser: "Isn't it wrong for a gentleman to take a lady's hand in conducting her to dances?" To which that paper replies: "No, not if her father's rich, and she hasn't got the salt-rheum."

CHRISTOPHER SCHMECH, wife and child, while crossing in a wagon the track of the Flushing and North Side Railroad, at Long Island, on Thursday, were struck by a passing train. Schmech was killed, and the wife and child fatally injured.

BERLIN papers contain a letter from Baron von Rhaeden, the divorced husband of Mlle. Lucca, repudiating and denouncing what he terms a villainous piece of rascality practiced upon him in New York in the divorce suit. He says, leaving untouched all the other shameful antecedents, that last autumn he laid before the proper court in Berlin a complaint for a divorce, on the ground of malicious abandonment.

THE Cumberland News has heard of a lusus naturæ on the farm of John Humbird, south of that city, which very probably has never had a parallel. A young heifer, or more probably an old calf, only fourteen months old (which has not been really weaned as yet, but remains with its dam) has a calf three weeks old. This is certainly the earliest and fastest time for increase on record.

THE directors of the Brooklyn Trust Company, after a protracted discussion, have decided to resume business as soon as the books and accounts have been balanced and the impaired capital of the company made good. It is now said to be certain that the depositors are to be paid in full, and that this can be done without forcing the stocks upon the market at a sacrifice. The directors positively say that a dividend of fifty per cent. will be paid on the 11th of August.

TOM ALLEN, the pugilist, publishes a card saying that if Charley Gallagher desires to fight him, as has been stated, he will give him a chance two weeks from his meeting with McCoole, for any amount he chooses from five hundred upwards. It is proposed to increase the attraction of the Allen and McCoole fight on September 23d by making a match between Jack Madden and Dublin Tricks, to be fought in the same ring and immediately after the contest between Allen and McCoole.

THE tide of immigration to the United States is as full this year as it was last year. From January 1st down to July 24th the total number of immigrants landed at New York was 179,376, which is but 700 less than during the corresponding period of last year. The arrivals keep almost even pace with those of last season, April having brought in nearly 43,000, May over 52,000, and June 39,000. Last year the total number of arrivals at New York was 292,933, a figure which will, in all probability, be reached this year.

THE new German Tariff Act reduces largely the duties on raw and manufactured iron, and at the end of three years takes off all customs dues on this material. After October 1st, 1873, raw iron and old iron will be admitted free, blooms still containing scoriæ at $2.50 a ton; hammered and rolled iron, and double angle and sheet iron, at $5 a ton; rough castings and forgings, and unfinished articles, at $12.50 a ton; locomotives, tenders and boilers, at $10 a ton, and steam engines and machinery at $6.25 a ton.

THE largest shipment of postal cards yet made took place on Monday, when one million and one thousand were shipped from the factory in Springfield to postmasters throughout the country. The books of the Postoffice Department show that since the first of June the largest amount of business ever done since the organization of the department, in the manufacture of stamps, stamped envelopes, wrappers, etc., took place. The increase was caused in a great measure by the abolition of the franking privilege.

OF ALL the odd deaths in the world, this reported from India is certainly the oddest. A native, while catching fish in a tank, put the head of one in his mouth and bit it, as the fish was rather troublesome in wriggling. Suddenly one of the sharp points in the back fin stuck in his hand; he opened his mouth to call for help, and the fish giving a quick plunge, jumped down his throat, and there firmly stuck. It was only taken out, and by small pieces, after he had been carried to the hospital. He was so exhausted that he died as soon as it was removed.

PETER KESSLER and his son August, who were arrested in St. Louis a few days ago for stealing mules in Callaway county, Ind., and taken to Fulton, the county seat of that county, for trial, had a narrow escape from lynching on Wednesday night. They arrived in Fulton on Wednesday, were examined and committed to jail. About two o'clock the following morning, some sixty horsemen, well armed, rode into town with the avowed purpose of hanging old Kessler, but the City Marshal, being advised of the intention, concealed the prisoners in a woods, and on Thursday took them to Jefferson City for safe keeping.

AN English technical periodical points out an easy way of testing whether water is good and fit for general use. It says: Good water should be free from color, unpleasant odor and taste, and should quickly afford a lather with a small portion of soap. If half a pint of the water be placed in a perfectly clean, colorless glass-stoppered bottle, a few grains of the best white lump sugar added and the bottle freely exposed to the daylight in the window of a warm room, the liquid should not become turbid, even after exposure for a week or ten days. If the water becomes turbid, it is open to the grave suspicion of sewage contamination; but if it remain clear, it is almost certainly safe. We owe to Helsch this simple, valuable, but hitherto strangely neglected test.

A VESSEL newly launched near Greenwich, in England, built for the Government of Chili, has been duly named by one of the priests attached to the Church of St. Mary, at Greenwich. He went round the upper and main decks sprinkling holy water in the name of the Trinity, while the choristers and acolytes marched before him. After this there was luncheon. A like ceremony it is supposed has not been performed in England since the Reformation, or at least since the Revolution of 1688. The Ritualists, of the English Church will now have on opportunity to introduce something novel; why cannot some of them ask permission to rename the whole Royal Navy?

Canning Tomatoes.

Put tomatoes up in stone jars holding two and three gallons each. I find them much better than jugs for canning fruit, as they can be more conveniently filled and emptied. My method of canning fruit is as follows: First, scald the jars very thoroughly in boiling water. (I scald mine in a large boiler.) Then pour into them your pared and sliced tomatoes. Set them into a large boiler with an iron grate or strips of iron on the bottom, so that the water may pass under the jars and prevent their breaking; then fill the boiler with cold water till within two inches of the top of the jars, and set over the fire; cover the jars while in the boiler with a heavy plate; keep the water boiling until the fruit is heated to a boiling point; then lift out the jars, one at a time, and seat them as follows: Wipe carefully the top of the jar with a damp, and then a dry cloth, as the wax will not adhere well when there is dampness; tie tightly a dry white cloth over the top of the jar and put on melted sealing-wax (of resin and tallow) around the outer edge; but be careful that it does not reach the inside of the rim, as it would get into the fruit and injure it; over this press firmly around the outer edge a circular piece of paper, which will cover the mouth of the jar and extend over one-half the width of the rim; tie over this another dry cloth and entirely cover the top of the jar with the melted wax until you have a coating of wax one-sixteenth of an inch thick; let them cool slowly. Of course, in canning fruit which is not well supplied with juice (or corn, peas, &c.), before sealing boiling water should be added until the jar is full; otherwise, air will fill the unoccupied space and spoil the contents.

Another method is to heat the fruit to a boiling point in a kettle, and pour while hot into the jars. The jars should be hot when the fruit is poured in; and if of glass, should be scalded by dipping them in hot water, so that the water will touch the inside and outside of the jars at the same time, and thus prevent breaking. A folded cloth of several thicknesses if placed under the jar before the fruit is put in, will prevent its cooling too suddenly, thus causing liability to break. I find it more convenient to sweeten the fruit before canning it. This is not thought economical by some, as the sugar would be lost if the fruit did not keep. My fruit keeps perfectly the entire year, consequently I have no loss in this way.

When the jars have been sealed a day or two and are quite cold, I turn them upside down and let them remain a few hours, that I may determine their liability to keep. If not sealed perfectly, they will leak a little when thus inverted, and need to be reheated and canned. The jars should be handled carefully, otherwise he wax is apt to crack. They should be kept in a cool dry place, but above the freezing point. Of late years I have not used tin for canning fruit; do not like it. The acids of some kinds of fruit, especially, affect the tin in such a way as to impart an unpleasant flavor. I prefer self-sealing glass jars above all others, and stoneware above tin. Have used several kinds of self-sealing cans, but prefer those which have a glass cover with rubber between and held securely by an iron clamp. Have not had very good success with the glass jars without rubber, as the wax sometimes got among the fruit. But after procuring rubber to place under the tin cover, I found no such difficulty, and they keep perfectly.—Mrs. Julia M. Wheelock in Moore's Rural New-Yorker.

PERSONAL.

WILLIAM PENN'S cottage in Philadelphia is a lager beer saloon.

ANTOINE RAVEL, of the famous "Ravel Family," died at Toulouse a few days since.

HENRY WATTERSON has been elected an honorary member of the Cobden Club in London.

MRS. HENTHON, widow of a naval officer, at Cincinnati, on Saturday became insane on an Ohio river steamer.

THE attack of the cholera on Andy Johnson seems to have been futile. It couldn't get him, because he had his Constitution to fall back on.

CHARLES FECHTER, the tragedian, has purchased a farm, of fifty-seven acres, three miles from Quakertown, Bucks county, Pa., from George L. Walker. Mr. Fechter intends to spend all his leisure time on his farm.

NATHANIEL STEPHENS, now of Galesburg, Ill., formerly of Canandaigua, N. Y., has been on the pension rolls since June 8, 1815, and has drawn altogether $4,815.60 for wounds received in the War of 1812. He is now 80 years old and blind.

GEORGE SAHWARTZ, aged 76, an old soldier and the survivor of two wives and many battles, could not survive the ridicule which followed his late marrying a youthful bride, and he therefore made her a widow, the other day, at Baltimore.

REV. BERNARD KEENAN, the Catholic clergyman at Lancaster, in this State, is 95 years old, and preserves his faculties wonderfully. He can relate the events and tell you of the men who figured seventy years ago, and his memory of the old times in Lancaster is wonderfully correct.

A GREAT discussion has been going on in Leavenworth, Kansas, as to who were first made parents after the founding of that city, and it has been decided that John C. Grund and wife, had the first boy, and Michael Przybylowicz the first girl. One is glad that she is a girl. Sometimes she may get a pronounceable name.

THE Shelbyville (Tenn.) Commercial, some weeks since, announced that the wife of Mr. Joseph Hastings, of that town, had given birth to triplets. In the same journal it is now stated that Mr. Joseph Hastings has "severed the jugular vein of his neck (sic) from which he soon expired." Under the circumstances it is rather surprising that Mr. Joseph Hastings did not "sever the jugular vein of his neck" sooner.

MADAME CHRISTINE NILSSON has received an unusually fervid and cordial farewell from her English friends, who seem to embrace all English people who love music. The Drury Lane Theater was filled in every nook and corner by the undistinguished masses, and the boxes contained a full representation of the aristocracy. The applause and the bouquets were beyond computation, and were alike the gift of the audience and not the machinery of the management. The opera was "Faust," and to judge from the unanimous and unmeasured plaudits of the newspapers the Diva has become a more faultless Marguerite than ever.

PERSIA AND THE PERSIANS.

The Religious Sects—An American Colony—The Missionary and the Minister—Population of Persia and its Decrease.

By far the greater part of the inhabitants of Persia are Mohammedans, the total number of dissenters from the established religion being considerably under a hundred thousand souls. The dissenters consist chiefly of Armenians, Nestorians, Jews, Guebres or Parsees and a few Roman Catholics. There is also of Protestants established among the Nestorians. They lead very heroic and useful lives, and have done more for the amelioration of Persian morality and the stoppage of cruelty and persecution than all the European diplomatic missions together. Mr. Perkins was, not long ago, the chief man in this colony, and the name of a gentleman so thoroughly estimable deserves to be more widely known to his countrymen in the United States than possibly it may be.

THE ARMENIANS.

The Armenian dissenters in Persia are supposed to number about 4,660 families or 26,035 souls, though there is no exactly reliable census upon which to base this calculation. The Nestorians, including Protestants and Roman Catholics, numbering about 4,190 families, or, probably, 25,000 souls. The Jews are estimated at 16,000 souls, and Parsees at 1,200 families, or 7,190 souls, as nearly as can be judged from the most recent statistics.

The Shiite religion, which is the dominant creed of Persia, differs to some extent from the Sunnite faith, which is in the uppermost form of religious belief in Turkey.

THE PERSIAN PRIESTHOOD.

The Persian priests are very numerous, and are divided into many orders. The chief of them at the present time is that of Mooshtehed, of whom there are but five in the whole country. The Mooshtehed allow of no interference from the Shah, and all vacancies in the post are filled by election among members of the order.

THE INFERIOR CLERGY.

Below the dignities are the mouturelle, the muezzins and the moollahs. There is a mouturella for each mosque or the place of pilgrimage. The muezzin is a sayer of prayers, and a moollah is a conductor of religious rites and ceremonies. The Armenian Church is governed by two bishops. Both reside at Ispahan, and one is a Roman Catholic.

THE AMERICAN MISSIONARIES.

Mr. Perkins and the American missionaries endeavored with considerable success, to educate the Nestorian Christians. They even extended some degree of culture to women. But they met with great difficulties in their task. The Persians demanded that their children should be paid for going to school, in the same manner as for performing any other kind of labor.

THE MISSIONARY AND THE MINISTER.

Nevertheless, Mr. Perkins and his colleagues persevered till they got together a large number of pupils, and Mrs. Perkins, a lady of singular energy and intelligence, formed a girls' school of more than a hundred young persons of the female sex.

Pleased with these results, and desirous of extended their labors to a wider field of action, they invited the late Prime Minister, who was all-powerful, to inspect their arrangements.

The Prime Minister, hearing that there were no less than a hundred young women, well washed and dressed by American benevolence, collected together at a village within an easy ride of his whereabouts, replied to Mrs. Perkins' invitation with the most gratifying alacrity. He inspected the school, not only with politeness, but with fervor, and expressed himself delighted with it. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins already saw the well deserved reward of their efforts within their grasp, and possibly hoped to inaugurate a new and improved system of Christian instruction in a heathen country, now that they would be protected by the most able and influential statesman in the kingdom. Their dreams were abruptly dispelled, for on taking cordial leave of Mr. Perkins the Persian Prime Minister, whose eyes had a strange glitter in them, unhesitatingly suggested that six of the female pupils should be sent after him to his private residence. Mr. Perkins collapsed, and never more coveted a visit from a Muzzulman Minister.

POPULATION OF PERSIA.

The population is everywhere so scanty as not to exceed, on the average, seven inhabitants to the square mile, which circumstance is well worth the consideration of railway share-holders.

According to a carefully made estimate furnished by Mr. Ronald Thompson, the British Secretary of Legation, who came to Europe with the Shah, the population of Persia recently numbered—

Inhabitants of cities	1,000,000
Population of wandering tribes	1,700,000
Inhabitants of village and country districts	1,700,000
Total population	4,400,000

THE CITIES OF PERSIA.

The largest of the Persian cities are Tabreez, or Tauris, with a population of 210,000; Teheran, with 85,000 inhabitants; Ispahan, with 60,000, and Yezd, with 40,000 inhabitants.

THE PURE PERSIAN RACE.

The 1,000,000 of inhabitants who reside in towns constitute the pure Persian race, and more than half the remaining population belong to the Turkish, Lek, Koordish and Arab tribes, which are spread over the whole of the Shah's territory. In some provinces, such as Khorassan and in the districts contiguous to the Turkish and Russian frontiers, nearly the entire population belong to one or the other of these tribes.

DECREASE OF THE POPULATION.

The population of Persia is believed to be steadily declining in number, owing to the ravages of the plague, the general absence of sanitary laws, the results of polygamy—which entirely deprive the poorer classes of wives—and various other not well ascertained causes.—Correspondence New York Herald.

THE CARS.

Tobacco Sinners.

The Arcadian remarks that the quiet gentleman, who, free from graver vices, indulges in the mild dissipation of tobacco, and gives himself up to the occasional, or even frequent, enjoyment of cigar-smoking, doubtless fancies himself a very decent sort of person. He perhaps entertains the delusive impression that he is a gentleman, and looks upon himself as a proper companion for other gentlemen and those paragons of refined perfection—the ladies. In this belief he may walk the streets, enter the houses of the rich and great, disport himself upon the piazzas of watering-place hotels, join the hilarious picnic in company with society's brightest gems; and all this without realizing that he is a disgusting monster, totally unfit for social intercourse with the delicate and refined; a being whose very presence is necessarily obnoxious to all save the most vulgar and degraded. Let him, however, but enter one of our street-cars, and he is at once forced to a recognition of the enormity of his offence against the commonest law of decency. The belles of our "best society" may tolerate this tobacco-smoking fiend, but the pure æsthetic taste of the horse-car President, the delicate nostrils of the horse-car conductor, and the critical good sense and native refinement or the average street-car occupant, repudiate him with unanimous consent. The washwoman may cumber that palace of elegance with huge baskets of soiled linen, the profane, the vulgar, and the grossly immoral of both sexes are welcome there; but the wretch who smokes, be it pipe, cigarette, or "Reina Victoria," sinks at once to his proper level in the social scale, and is promptly ejected from that hallowed spot, or else forced to forego his vile indulgence. In vain he protests, in vain he seeks to be permitted to occupy standing room on the platform. There is no place for him, tainted thus with moral leprosy. He is made to feel that he is an outcast among his fellow-beings. He looks with envy upon the washwoman with her dirty linen, and he sees prostitutes and pickpockets mingling unquestioned with other occupants of the car, and recognizes with shame and humiliation their social superiority over the vile, degraded wretch who smokes. This must be quite proper and just, for it is utterly impossible that the combined wisdom, taste, and judgment of our street railway managements should err in this matter, and the sooner the principle that the cigar smoker is the very incarnation of human degradation is universally understood and accepted, the better it will be, no doubt, for all concerned.

Why Do Consumptives Die?

The first blow against any enemy with which we have to contend is always an important one; hence the consumptive who puts off to a distant day the necessary treatment to effect a cure, will not only lose valuable time, but will also incur the risks of a fatal termination. Yet ever since the introduction of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure this hitherto fatal disease is shorn of more than half its terrors. The reason then why consumptives die, may be found in the fact that they do not begin the treatment early enough. The disease has oftentimes made sad ravages in the lung tissue before any treatment, suitable to a cure has been instituted, and we need not marvel, such being the case at the many fatal terminations. If you look for a cure begin in time. Do not wait until the other vital organs have felt the baneful influence of the lung malady. Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure has cured very many bad cases, and should a cure be possible will always effect it, but that does not furnish grounds for criminal neglect, when a remedy of such great power is so easily obtainable. Dr. Keyser is a regularly educated physician and has given to the world in his Lung Cure, a boon of priceless value, not only in consumption, but in a score of chronic maladies which have been the source of much individual suffering and the bane of many a household. The Doctor's treatise should be read by all. It may be had by addressing Dr. Keyser, at his principal office, 167 Liberty St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

There is very little change to note in the local money market. Messrs. Robinson Bros., bankers, No. 78 Fourth avenue, furnish the following quotations of active stock on the Philadelphia Stock Board today:

Most of the business in Philadelphia is being done at the banks, which manage to place surpluses at about the legal rate of interest. The open market is amply supplied, it is generally invested in railroad and other corporation bonds, which constitute the bulk of business of the Stock Board from day to day. Stocks are fairly active and a little steadier. Sales of city sixes, old, at 98, new at 10⅜, and Lehigh, gold loan, at 91. Reading railroad sold at 55⅜; Pennsylvania at 54⅜, and Lehigh Valley at 61½; 32⅜ was bid for new Catawissa preferred, and 42⅜ for Camden and Atlantic preferred.

Chicago banks report this decidedly the dullest period of the season. Some of the banks have not been offered a single piece of paper. In order to employ their idle funds a resort to outside well-secured notes has been found necessary. Of course they are not known in such transactions, but not a few have been made within the last week or two. For some to day the temptation to do it could not be resisted, for idle money will not earn dividends. Rates to customers are nominal at 10 ℔ cent.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad stock is offered in Baltimore at 174, preferred at 104⅜, and Pittsburgh and Connellsville offered at 21⅜. The sales of bonds were 3,000 Baltimore and Ohio 1875s at 98, 2,000 Pittsburgh and Connellsville at 94. The quotations were as follows: Baltimore and Ohio 1880s 95⅜@98, Pittsburgh and Connellsville 93⅜@94⅜.

In Boston the supply of loanable funds, both on time and on call, was in no way diminished, but the extreme sultriness of the weather seems to have somewhat restricted the demand, and the transactions in prime mercantile paper were more limited even than yesterday, with the rate still ranging from 6⅜@7 ℔ cent. Small bills are once more very burdensome, being freely offered for two or three days free of interest, on condition that the loan shall be paid off in Clearing House funds.

NEW YORK, August 1, 1873.

Money was easy at 3@4 per cent. Sterling was dull and weak at 108⅜ for sixty days and 109⅜@109⅜ for sight. Customs receipts $328,000. The total imports for the week ending to-day were $5,409,919, of which $2,309,919 were dry goods and $3,100,000 merchandise. Gold was weak and lower, declining from 115⅜ to 115⅛, closing at 115⅜. Loans were 2@4 per cent. to flat for carrying. Clearings $40,000,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $727,000. Governments were dull; new 5s and registered 10-40s were quoted at ex. interest. Stocks were irregular but the changes in most shares were slight. There were frequent fluctuations, but at the close the market was firm and prices well sustained, except in a few instances. Vanderbilt shares were the firmest. The weaker spots in the market were Pacific Mail and Northwestern common. The latter declined from 69⅜ to 67⅜ on a pressure of sales in the afternoon, but afterwards recovered to 68⅜ and closed firm. Pacific Mail declined 1 per cent., with an increased disposition to sell during late dealings. It was reported that the city authorities were about to issue attachments against the Pacific Mail Company for over-due taxes. There was some talk on the street of a movement among Erie preferred stockholders, which, if it continues, may endanger the dividends on preferred stock.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, August, 1, 1873.

Trade in general merchandise continues quiet, as it usually is at this particular time, and the markets are devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. There is a very fair jobbing demand for the leading staples, and a fair volume of business in the aggregate, while as regards values, there have been no important changes recently.

APPLES—The receipts continue to increase, and the market is pretty well supplied, but with a steady demand, prices are still maintained, ranging from $2.50, to $4.50 ℔ brl. according to quality.

BEANS—Quoted at $2⅜@3 ℔ bushel.

BUTTER—There is rather more inquiry for the better grades, and a stronger feeling in consequence, but no advance in prices: we continue former quotations, 10@15 for common to medium, and 18@20 for prime to choice.

CHEESE—Is in active demand, and the recent advance is fully sustained: prime Ohio Factory, 13⅜ for round lots, and 13@13⅜ in a jobbing way.

EGGS—Notwithstanding the receipts are only fair, the supply seems to be in excess of the demand, which is light, and prices are weak and drooping; quotations may be given at 16@18.

FRUITS—Of all kinds are coming in quite freely, mainly from the east, and prices are declining. Plums quotable at $7 to $8 ℔ stand of two bushels; Blackberries, $7 to $9; Peaches, $2 to $2.5 per box. Whortle Berries, $1@1.50 per bucket.

FLOUR—There is a very fair jobbing demand, and our market is steady with no change whatever in prices. We continue to quote at $7@7.50 for spring wheat, the outside figure for choice Minnesota; $8@8.50 for red winters.

GRAIN—There is considerable inquiry for red winter Wheat, but as the supply on spot is very small, prices are firm though not quotably higher. $1.50@1.55 for fair to medium, and $1.58@1.60 for choice—we were reported a sale of 1 car at the last named quotation. The Oat market is reported quite brisk, and while a stronger feeling exists in consequence, there has been no advance as yet: we continue to quote at 43@44 for mixed, and 45@46 for white. There is very little doing in Corn, and notwithstanding it is in light supply, the market is dull, although prices have undergone no change: 53@54 for shelled on track, and 55@56 in elevator, and 56@58 for ear, according to quality. Rye is very quiet and nominal at 75@80. The fact that distillers are nearly all stopped has placed a quietus on the market for both Rye and Seelled Corn.

GROCERIES—The grocery trade is generally reported quiet and there is no movement of importance to report. Coffee continues very firm—the market has a strong undertone, and all indications at present point to a higher range of prices. Roasted Coffee in this market is cheaper relatively than green, and buyers should make a note of this and act accordingly. Sugars continue quiet, although in a statistical point of view the market for raws is said to be strong, but trade is not as brisk as usual at this season of the year. The stock of refined goods both in first and second hands, is said to be very much reduced, but there seems to be a lack of confidence in regard to the future, and the demand is light.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 13c; Crushed, Granulated and Powdered, 12; Standard A, 11⅜; B: 11⅜; Ex. C, 11c; C, Yellow, 10⅜; Circle C, 10⅜. Lower grades, 9@10.

COFFEE—Choice Rio, 25; Good to Prime, 22⅜@23⅜c, fair 21@21⅜c. Old Government Java, 28c; other Javas, 26@27c. Roasted Rio, 1 lb packages, 28c; loose, 27⅜c Roasted Java, 33⅜.

SYRUPS—White Drips, 65; other grades ranging from 60 to 40, as to quality.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 19; prime, 9 Patna, 8@8⅜; Rangoon, 7⅜@8

MOLASSES—Choice New Orleans, 73@75c Prime 70@72.

HAY—The market for baled continues quiet, and prices are without quotable change, ranging from $23@27 ℔ ton, according to quality. Loose sold from country wagons in Allegheny at $18@28 for new crop—the stock of old is about exhausted.

POTATOES—In good supply, and the market is generally reported dull, although prices remain unchanged, ranging from $3 to $3.50 per brl.

ONIONS—Sales reported in a jobbing way, at $4@5 ℔ brl, according to quality.

POULTRY—Spring chickens are quotable at 50 to 60 cents, and full grown at 70 to 80 ℔ pair, according to size.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, ℔ lb. 16c, Ex. Sugar Cured Shoulders, 11⅜: Sugar cured Breakfast Bacon, 13c. Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, 19⅜c. Beef tongues, $7.50 ℔ dozen. Bacon Shoulders, per lb, 9⅜c. Bacon Rib Sides, 10⅜c. Bacon Short Rib Sides 11c. Bacon Clear Rib Sides, 11⅜c. Mess Pork, $18.00 per barrel. Refined Lard for summer use, in trcs, 10c. Do. half bbls. 10⅜c. Do. bkts 11⅜c. Do. in 3 lb. caddies, 12⅜c. Do in 5 lb. 12⅜c; Do. in 3 lb. pails 13⅜c; ℔ pound. Do. in 6 lb. pails, 13.

RAGS—Quoted at 3⅜@3⅜c.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is quoted firm at $4.50—it is said to be worth $4.40 in Chicago. Flax Seed continues scarce but unchanged at $2.10@2.12⅜

WHISKY—Highwines, 97@98c.

PITTSBURGH IRON AND NAIL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, PITTSBURGH, Friday, August 1, 1873.

Trade in finished irons continues quiet, although not any more so than usual at this particular time: however, an increased demand is expected within the next few weeks, and the indications at this writing are that these expectations will be fully realized. There has been no recent change in the price list: 3 and 8-10 is the card rate for merchant bars, while 3 5-10 and 3 6-10 are the actual selling prices. The nail trade is reported a shade better, and some of the nail mills have started up again, although not running to their full capacity. Shoenberger's mill is still idle, but if trade continues to improve, it will doubtless soon start up, too. No change in rates, $4⅜@4⅜, cash and time. Stocks in this market, it is said, are light for this season of the year: some firms, whose factories are stopped, have been obliged to borrow and buy to fill their orders.

TERMS—Note or acceptance at sixty days, with exchange on New York, or discount of two per cent. for cash, if remitted within ten days from date of invoice. Payments to be made in New York Exchange, United States Treasury Notes, or their equivalent. No discount on bills of less amount than fifty dollars.

PIG IRON AND BLOOM MARKET. WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, August 1, 1873.

The pig iron market continues very dull, and while there has been no quotable decline in prices as compared with last week, the tendency, if anything is still downward. Trade has been so very unsatisfactory and unsettled during the past six months that operators generally seem to have but little confidence in the future. Buyers concede that pig iron is low at present rates, that it is almost, if not altogether down to the cost of production, yet they are still holding off, afraid to stock up, being apprehensive that there might be a still further decline; hence, there is no movement of any importance, and the market in addition to being very dull, is in a very unsettled and unsatisfactory condition. Some of the eastern markets have stiffened up somewhat recently, and metal is considerably higher, relatively, there than here. We were informed by a commission merchant to-day, that he has some eastern iron in yard, for which he might possibly obtain $34, yet the owner of it writes that he can get $34, and is holding at $35, at the furnace, equal to $39@40 delivered here. We understand that some of the furnacemen are refusing to sell at present rates, and it is intimated that those who are selling are obliged to do so in order to raise money—that they are forced to realize at some price. We are in hopes, however, that there will soon be a change for the better, and it is improbable that the stagnation which has prevailed so long will hold out much longer. The following sales were reported:

Chicago Wheat "Corner."

CHICAGO, July 31.—The Tribune says: If there were any lingering doubt that the market is cornered for July, it was dispelled to-day, when the premium on cash wheat rose to 12c ℔ bu. and hard to get at that. We have now less than 200,000 bu. No. 2 spring wheat in store, and arrangements are understood to have been made to move out the whole of it, thus placing the short interest entirely at the mercy of the longs, on a deal which is believed to exceed half a million bushels at 1 o'clock to-day. The short interest, many of whom have hitherto held off in the hope of a break, became anxious to fill to-day, and settled to a large extent, most of them at $1.24, which was nearly 10c ℔ bu. above the price for August. There was, however, a good deal of grumbling heard during the process from the parties who were obliged to pay such high prices, and loud accusations were vented against men who were asserted by others to have no connection with the deal. There is little doubt that the corner is manipulated with Canadian capital, and is conducted by parties here as agents for Canadian operators, though Chicago principals may be associated with them. Popular rumor points to a man who is not now allowed to walk the floor of the Exchange, as the man who is at the bottom of the whole mischief, but popular rumor may be mistaken, as he does not usually operate for Canada. Cash No. 2 spring, in round lots, or seller the month, opened at $1.22⅜, advanced to $1.24⅜, declined to $1.23⅜ then rose to $1.25 at the close, on the announcement that arrangements had been made to ship out all the No. 2 spring now here. Car lots were wanted, but generally sold ⅜c ℔ bu below the price of round lots. Seller August was rendered stronger by the fear that the corner will be extended into that month.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, August 1, 1873.

The Crude market was unsettled to-day, though a little firmer feeling was developed; it opened at Parker at $1.50, advanced to $1.55 and subsequently fell back to $1.50; some sales of choice lines were reported, on eastern account, at $1.57⅜—there were no purchases on Pittsburgh account, that we could hear of, above $1.55, equal to about 4⅜c ℔ gallon delivered here. Refined is reported in a very badly demoralized condition; for the time being there seems to be little or no demand—exporters are out of the market: quoted nominally at 17⅜ delivered in Philadelphia, and 14⅜ on cars here. The market for both crude and refined seems to be panicky and considerably demoralized: however, our refiners are in pretty good shape as they are reported as having sold ahead some time ago, at much better prices than can now be obtained.

RIVER NEWS.

The stage of water last evening was six feet five inches and falling. Weather continues cloudy and hot, with occasional showers. Prospects are favorable for a continuance of navigation; the worst feature lies in the fact that business is dull—freights for all points are scarce.

The Mallie Ragon, from Wheeling, and the Granite State, from Portsmouth, arrived and departed.

The Juniata was at Marietta yesterday, and, consequently, is due here to-day. She will leave on her return trip early next week.

The John F. Dravo passed Marietta all right on Thursday, and it is not likely she will have any trouble in reaching her destination, as she was through the worst part of the river.

The Messenger is at Brownsville being repaired.

Captain R. C. Gray left for Cape May yesterday; he returned from St. Louis on Tuesday.

Captain Dan Moore, of the Arlington, is expected home from Cincinnati within the next few days. His packet will be ready as soon as business opens up.

—The following is from the Evansville Courier: We quote the rule or section of the law, which governs pilots ascending and descending the river:

"SECTION 4. When a steamer is ascending and running close on a bar or shore, the pilot shall in no case attempt to cross the river, when a descending boat shall be so near that it would be possible for collision to ensue therefrom."

From the foregoing it will be observed that while G. W. Elder, pilot of the Morning Star, was ascending the river at Vanado Landing, and the Mary Ament descending, Mr. Elder attempted to cross the bow of the Mary Ament when she was too close to pass her without danger of collision, which would have occurred only for the skillful handling of the Mary Ament. After careful and impartial investigation of the case, Inspectors McClain and Archer suspended the license of G. W. Elder, pilot of the Morning Star, for 30 days. We regret this suspension on the part of Mr. Elder, and are pleased to state that it is of a short duration.

—The St. Louis Democrat says: The steamer DeSmet was detained at Benton, on the charge of illegal selling of whisky, for thirteen days. Proceedings were instituted against the boat until she was ready to clear for below. Captain LaBarge declares that the charge was trumped up for black mail purposes. He went to Helena, something over 200 miles distant, to settle the case, and after being heard by the Judge, he received orders for the unconditional release of his boat and instructions not to pay the parties who had caused her detention a cent. The Captain was naturally considerably indignant over the affair. He avers that the detention was a damage to the boat of $8,000. It was reported that the boat was to be seized on a like charge at Cheyenne, but she reached St. Louis without further trouble.

—The Sioux City Journal of 26th says: The Far West and the Key West are expected down the first of the week. The Western is expected to arrive at Yankton from above to-day or to-morrow. The Silver Lake is loading here for Randall, and is expected to get away on Monday. The May Lowry left Yankton at six o'clock on Thursday evening for Fort Abraham Lincoln. The Katie P. Kountz left here for Yankton yesterday. Her pilots, clerk and most of the roustabouts left at this place, and she cleared from here with only three deck hands. Amada Pappan, late of the Esperanza, piloted her up.

—We learn by letter from James Greenough, clerk, that the Peninah was to leave Yankton, July 28, for Fort Rice, with 1,750 sacks of corn and 2,210 sacks of oats. The letter also says: "Boats in port on the 27th, were the Mollie Moore, Katie P. Kountz, Western, Far West and Peninah. The Miner left here to-day with 175 tons of freight for Fort Buford. The Far West begins loading to-morrow for Fort Rice also. Roosters wages $50 ℔ month. River falling fast at this point. Remember me to all my friends."

—Sunday's St. Joseph Herald says: "Outside the Mountaineer, the navigation of the Missouri river has been light during the last two months. One boat the Jas L. Joy, passed up during June, and one, the Josephine, so far in July. There are eight or nine boats in the mountains yet, which will have to pass down before the season is out."

—The body of Mrs. Springle, the lady who was drowned by the sinking of the ill fated steamer Jennie Howell was found near Caseyville, and was interred at that place. The unfortunate woman was on her way from Vicksburg to Evansville at the time of the accident.

—A Cincinnati telegram under date of Friday says: The Exchange departs for Pittsburgh tonight. The Wild Duck passed down at noon. The John Gilmore and Fearless arrived at St. Louis, and proceed to Pittsburgh to-night.

—But thirteen twenty-fourths of the steamer Andrew Ackley was sold by the U. S. Marshal at New Orleans the other day for $2,000, and not the whole boat as previously stated.

—On Friday the Tennessee river packet Company will place the Silverthorn in the Evansville and Tennessee River trade, in place of the Rapidan No. 2, Allen J. Dardon commanding.

—The Gilmore sunk a model barge, containing iron ore this morning just below the city, at a place called Bold Face.

Robberies at Sewickley.

Burglaries are becoming alarmingly frequent in the quiet village of Sewickley, and its inhabitants are laboring under considerable excitement in consequence. On Sunday night the residence of Mr. Moore, adjacent to the Roseburg station, was robbed of a lot of jewelry belonging to Miss Moore. On the same night the residence of O. H. P. Williams was entered and $85 stolen from a nephew of Mr. Williams, who was awoke by the actions of the robbers, but too late to hinder their departure. On Monday night Capt. Gilmore's residence near the Sewickley depot, received a visit from the burglars, and two gold watches captured by the thieves the property of two lady visitors.

Sudden Death of an Infant.

Coroner West yesterday held an inquest on Wilhelmina Ryf, an infant eleven weeks old, that had died suddenly the previous evening at 136 Perry street, Third Ward, Allegheny. It appears that the child's mother had put it safely in its cradle, when she fell over in a fit, to which she was subject, senseless to the floor. The husband came in shortly after, and found his wife lying senseless on the floor, and the child dead in the cradle. Dr. Marcus was immediately summoned, but would give no certificate of death for the infant till the Coroner held an inquest. The physician gave it as his opinion that the child died of spasms of the heart. Verdict accordingly.

North Side Institute.

We have already called attention to this Institution, and now request our readers to note the fact that the Principal may be found at the rooms every morning after 8½ o'clock. Circulars will be found at the book and dry goods stores of both cities. Secure places at once, as the rooms, although capacious, will not accommodate everybody. Observe, that ladies preparing to teach will find every facility for instruction. Young ladies and gentlemen may receive special instruction in the afternoon. Younger pupils, also, will here enjoy opportunities of rapid and thorough education. Call and see the Principal, and give him the names of those you will send, that he may be able to provide accommodations for all. As a recommendation, it will suffice to say that Mr. T. E. Wakeham is the Principal, and will employ only the most competent teachers. It is now almost certain that a strictly Primary Department will be established in connection with the other departments.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

A Young Lady Enveloped in Flames—Shockingly Burned—Probable Fatal Termination of the Accident.

Martha Butler, a daughter of Caleb Butler, of Coopersdale, was horribly burned by the fire on Wednesday last whilst working over a stove in which she had just kindled an exceedingly hot fire. Martha was in the act of lifting a kettle from the stove, standing immediately at its front, when the flames blazed forth and communicated to her dress which was a loose wrapper. In an instant she was enveloped in flames, which made such rapid progress as she rushed screaming from the house, that by the time the neighbors could arrive in answer to her cries her clothing dropped in ashes from her person. Unfortunately no water was at hand, and had to be drawn from the well necessitating time, and owing to this, at least two-thirds of the surface of her body was deeply burned and large pieces of the skin peeled off. Drs. H. W. and Esther J. W. Marbourg, quickly arrived and exhausted skill and medicine toward the relief of the sufferer. There is but slight hope of the young lady's recovery.

A MISSION OF LOVE.

The Adventures of Mr. John Grubb.—His search for "The Apple of his Eye."

A "young man from the country," rejoicing in the not very euphonious name of Grubb,—Mr. John Grubb, while "walking thro' the park" in Allegheny city chanced to encounter two young ladies who were very pleasing in the eyes of John. They smiled when first they met, and in a very winning manner; their beauty so infatuated Mr. Grubb, that he then and there declared he would call upon the fascinating creatures.

Night before last Mr. Grubb could have been seen gorgeously arrayed and with a smiling, although inquiring countenance promenading along Sherman avenue upon a mission of love intent. He had gazed up to the windows of some houses, made inquiries at others, and while it was quite dark was discovered meandering through the grounds of a families residence on the avenue, who were impressed with the idea that Mr. Grubb was there with burglarious intentions; thereupon such information was lodged at the Mayors office and Capt. Wilson and officer Jno. Scott were soon upon the ground and took John into custody. His protestations of innocence of any wrong doing were quite fervent and appealing, but Deputy Mayor Neillie did not look upon the matter in the same light with John, and therefore imposed a fine of $10 and costs upon this love inclined individual.

WILLS OF JAMES CHAMBERS.

The Legatees and the Legacies.

The wills of the late James Chambers, of this city, were admitted to probate yesterday in the office of Register Gray. The provisions of both are as follows. The first will is dated May 14, 1870, and is witnessed by John M. Morse, C. H. King, and W. J. Howard:

First, he bequeathes to his wife, Maria, for and during her life, the homestead on Second avenue, and the yearly sum of five hundred dollars, payable to her half yearly.

Second—He gives to his daughter, Eliza, wife of Wm. McGregor, for and during her life, the yearly sum of six hundred dollars, payable half yearly.

Third—He gives to his sister Susan the sum of two thousand dollars. To his nephew, Alexander, and niece, Eliza, children of his deceased brother, Alexander, the sum of one thousand dollars each. To his nephews and niece, John, Matthew, David, and Rachel, the sum of five hundred dollars each. To Ada, Belle, Hettie and William, children of his friend, W. J. Howard, of Philadelphia, the sum of one hundred dollars each. To Robert Woods, of Pittsburgh, employed in Lippincott's, the sum of fifty dollars.

Fourth—All the rest, residue and reversions of his estate, are bequeathed to his son, Alexander Chambers, absolutely and in fee simple.

The second will is dated July 8, 1873, and in it he bequeathes to Elizabeth Irwin the sum of two thousand dollars, and Alexander Chambers is appointed his sole executor. The witnesses are John F. McDonly and Wm. Floyd.

AUDITING ACCOUNTS.

The Riddell Investigating Committee—Evidence of Clerk Patterson—The Inner Workings of the Concern—The Dockets Explained—Refusal to Answer a Question.

Yesterday morning at ten o'clock the special Committee of Councils, consisting of Messrs. Riddell, Fulton and Finley, appointed to audit the accounts and investigate the management of the Mayor's office, commenced their work. The only witness examined was Mr. James S. Patterson, Mayor's clerk. His testimony was as follows:

REGARDING DOCKETS.

I leave the city for Europe on Monday or Tuesday next; was Mayor's clerk from February 1, 1872, to November 15, 1872, and closed the books to that time; returned again about the middle of January, 1873, and have remained until last evening, when my term expired by resignation; there is no docket kept showing all informations made; we only enter those criminal cases which go to Court in the information docket; informations that are made in the Mayor's office, that are withdrawn or dismissed, the costs and date are taxed upon them and then filed away in the safe; to the best of my belief all the informations taken and not entered in the information docket are filed away in the safe, except a few now in the drawer, but which will be placed in the Mayor's safe this evening; have no idea of the number, whether there are one hundred or five hundred; a separate book is kept for the Mayor, in which all costs taxed upon such cases are entered; we never run an account with officers; we always paid the officers the cash down as soon as possible after the case was settled; during my term I kept the information docket, drew the informations and taxed the costs; received the costs in these cases unless I happened to be out of the office; I made the entries in the Mayor's cost book; it contained an account of all the costs received in the office; on the cases returned to the Court I collected all the costs from the Sheriff and Controller; I entered them as paid on the information docket; I also collected the officers' costs as taxed in the Mayor's office on the information; I paid the officers' over to them immediately upon the production of the warrants; I taxed the Mayor's costs up in his cost book; to my knowledge none of the informations made and not returned to Court have been destroyed except one; that was made against an unknown party who was never arrested; there was afterwards a second information made; the settled and discharged cases are not numbered.

SUMMARY CONVICTION.

We have a summary conviction docket. I make the entries and tax up the costs in it. The Mayor's costs are $2,40; there is sometimes a cost for witnesses, but seldom; it ranges from ten to twenty-five cents. The officer's costs for making the arrest are eighty-five cents, a dollar, and sometimes two dollars; in March, 1872, there was an act passed by the Legislature increasing the fees for the officers, making the fees a dollar for a warrant, and one dollar for commitment; we tax the costs now in pursuance of the bill; I continued taxing the old costs until the officers jogged my memory that I was not paying them enough; I then went and purchased a fee bill, but can't recollect the time; did not always tax according to the fee bill; sometimes I reduced the costs as low as possible where the parties were poor; no portion of the costs taxed in these cases go to the city whether the arrests are made by the officer while on or off "duty;" there are not more than one or two dockets of this kind; the dockets do not include the watch house cases; the Mayor's costs in these cases were carried into his book and the officers were paid.

WATCH HOUSE.

The watch house docket is kept part of the time by the Captain and part of the time by myself. It is left with the Captain at night and returned to the Mayor's office after the hearing in the morning. The Captains who have had possession of the docket are Reed, Ramsey, Cupples, Palmer, Hazen and Garrison; when prisoners are brought in at night, they are searched by the Captain of the watch, or other officers in the same room; the charge is entered by the Captain, or sometimes by other parties who volunteer; the name of the officer making the arrest and the name of the prisoner are also noticed, and a list of articles taken from the prisoner are, or should be entered; as a general rule, I think, all valuables are entered on the docket. The Captain is in the habit of receiving deposits of money in lieu of bail, for the appearance of the parties; sometimes he takes as high as fifty dollars; don't know of my own knowledge of his having taken watches, revolvers, or other valuables as collaterals for security; I do recollect of one case where the Captain took a gold watch; the money and valuables are retained in the custody of the Captain during the night; I know of frequent cases where parties have not called for their deposits; when parties leave deposits their valuables are returned to them: if they do not return for their deposit the money is forfeited, part to the Mayor and part to the city; if a man leaves a deposit of say $30 and does not appear to answer the charge, the money is forfeited—$26.75 goes to the city, 85 cents goes to the officer if off duty when the arrest was made, or the city if on duty, making 85 cents additional to the city, and $2.40 goes to the Mayor.

DISPOSITION OF VALUABLES.

The watch-house docket shows the final disposition of the money. The entries are made in ink, there being no pencil entries made to my knowledge. There have been no erasures or alterations on that docket to my knowledge; it is before us at the hearings; the entries are made as the cases are disposed of. At the hearing the money and valuables that have been taken from prisoners during the night are brought out of the safe by the captain of the watch, enclosed in envelopes, and laid on the desk in front of the Mayor and myself, until they are disposed of in accordance with the Mayor's orders. I don't remember that any valuables belonging to prisoners were retained after a deposit was made; during my time all pistols, knives, and slung-shots, etc., were handed over to the Mayor as custodian; knives, pistols, revolvers, etc., taken from prisoners are generally confiscated; in some cases they are returned; I never kept any account of them; I was not custodian; don't know whether the Mayor did or not; never knew of knucklers or bandy-billies being given back; have known revolvers to be returned; they are kept in the Mayors private drawers; if they were kept in the safe they would be in my custody.

ORDINANCE VIOLATIONS.

The only other docket kept in the Mayor's office is the ordinance book docket, in which violations of city ordinances are kept. All the cases are not entered in this book, but the summonses are carefully filed away. The Mayor's costs in these cases are $2,40 and the officer's 60 cents. I did tax $1,00 for officers, but found I was mistaken. The costs were entered in the Mayor's cost book, but I cannot produce it, as it is not in my possession. I saw it yesterday morning, when it was in possession of the Mayor; I gave it to him at the request of himself and counsel, I closed it up night before last and gave it to him after the morning hearing yesterday. The books will show the receipts in gross each day. I posted into it from the dockets each day; parties are frequently released after conviction, except those sent to the Work House.

DECLINES TO ANSWER.

Mr. Finley—Did you ever foot up the amount of fees recorded in the Mayor's cost books, and if so, have you any approximate idea of the total amount?

Mr. Patterson—I am on my oath, gentlemen. I have footed up the amounts and I have an idea of what they are, but I would rather not answer that question.

Mr. Riddell—Mr. Patterson, there seems to be no good reason why you should not answer this question; the simple amount does not criminate anybody.

At this point Mr. Patterson asked permission to retire, which was given, and after a few moments' absence, returned and said that he must positively decline to answer. [He had consulted with the Mayor.]

The Committee then adjourned to meet again this morning at half-past nine o'clock.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Two Freight Trains Collide on the Allegheny Valley Railroad—Two Men Killed Outright—The Engineer Disobeys Orders—He Disappears after the Accident.

A wild train of crude oil, bound south on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, collided with a regular freight train about one mile north of Brady's Bend, at 6 A. M., yesterday. A. J. Borland, of Tarentum, the fireman, and Michael Bonner, a brakeman, attached to the regular train, were killed outright. Eleven cars filled with oil were lost. The engines came together with great force and both were badly damaged. The train was not one on the regular schedule, and was running under strict orders to keep clear of all regular trains. The engineer of the irregular train, J. W. Chalfant, appears to have disregarded these instructions, and through his negligence the above men lost their lives. Chalfant disappeared immediately after the wreck. Shortly after the collision workmen commenced clearing away the debris, and by yesterday the road was opened for the passage of trains.

No Puffery—A Square Dealing House.

Among the business houses of Pittsburgh which need no puffery is that of Messrs. Wm. Hespenheide & Co., No. 50 Sixth street, which is one of the leading establishments in this community engaged in the merchant tailoring trade. This firm have always made it a practice to let their work speak for them, and hence have relied upon giving satisfaction to every one, as their best advertisement. From personal knowledge of the house, the manner of doing business, and the character of the goods always kept on hand, we are fully prepared to recommend it to the confidence of our friends.

Messrs. Hespenheide & Co. just now have a superior stock of goods for summer wear on hand, and have facilities for quickly filling any order that may be left with them. Their stock consists of all the freshest styles of fabrics, and they will make up in a style that can be excelled nowhere. Their goods are first class, their work not a whit behind, their prices reasonable, and the house as deserving of confidence as any other west of the mountains.

Stores

avoid wood and paper, etc., etc., for kindling fires, and buy McClintock's Patent Fire Lighters, as the safest, most convenient, and cheapest. For sale at all grocers. "Central Trading Company." No. 116 Second avenue, sole manufacturers.

Interesting to Housekeepers.

All housekeepers know that there is nothing which so displays their knowledge of domestic matters and their skill as good housewives than a well set, neat table. The home may be perfect in other respects, and yet is there is a deficiency there it will be an unpleasant commentary upon the proficiency of the mistress of the mansion.

As no woman can make a table look right unless she has the materials, the first thing is a full supply of Queensware, China, and Glassware, and that in Pittsburgh can be had to the greatest advantage at the old established house of Garber & Williams, No. 189 Liberty street. This is one of the oldest houses in the city, and in its line has no peer. There is literally everything in the trade found there, and a housekeeper would be delighted just to view the stock. Then, too, the prices are remarkably low, so that every purse can reach them. Housekeepers, drop into 189 Liberty street and get your supplies.

The Clothing Investigation.

There has been quite a furore for the last few weeks over the investigation of the cost of the poor policemen's blue cloth and yellow buttons. About the strongest point made in the search after financial truth, is the fact that clothing can be had at some establishments cheaper than at others. Yet a committee was not needed to develop this fact, for the Boston One Price Clothing House, No. 95 Smithfield street, has settled this matter long since to the satisfaction of the most incredulous. They can, will and do sell clothing at rates that can not be surpassed for cheapness. And the first price asked is the only, the least and the last price which you can expect to pay for clothing. No "dickering" here.

Families

avoid domestic complications, divorces, &c., by buying McClintock's Patent Fire Lighters. No wood. No paper. No dirt. Cheapest. Safest. For sale at all grocers. Central Trading Company, No. 116 Second avenue, sole manufacturers.

THE COURTS.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

U. S DISTRICT COURT.

[Before Judge McCandless.]

At the request of the assignee of F. D. Marion, of Warren county, bankrupt, an order was made for a general meeting of creditors at the office of Register Woodruff, at Erie.

Thos. C. Lazear, Esq., Solicitor for the respective petitioning creditors in the bankruptcy matters of Orth & Laburn, of Washington county, Louis A. Turner, of this county, and J. G. McLane, of Venango county, presented petitions asking an allowance for services rendered, and that the amounts deposited for costs be refunded by the assignees of said bankrupts, and the same were referred to Registers Knox, Harper and Rogers for examination and report.

James Merrielees, of Oil City, against whom a petition in bankruptcy was filed by Bartlett, Berry, Reed & Co., creditors, of New York city, having been arrested by the U. S. Marshal, and produced in Court, and the said debtor having filed an answer denying the allegations set forth in the petition asking for his arrest, a motion was made that he be discharged. The same was argued by Mr. Purviance for the motion, and Mr. Johns contra, whereupon the Court fixed the bail at $8,000, in default of which he was ordered to be committed to the Allegheny county jail.

CRIMINAL COURT.

[Before Judge Collier.]

This Court will be in session to-day, and all defendants convicted during the present term and not sentenced will be called, and the bail of those not present will be forfeited. The following is the Trial List for To-day.

Commonwealth vs.

Martin Gilmartin,	Joseph Michel,
Patrick McKeever,	Edward Henshel,
John Jamison.

All motions for new trials and all cases on the argument list for this term will be disposed of.

Why Many Men are not Rich.

Because they did not begin to save and deposit their surplus earnings in early youth, and thus form the habits of prudence and economy, which are the surest guarantees to success. Water dropping day by day, will wear the hardest rock away, and a small amount placed daily or weekly where it may accumulate, will in a few years astonish the depositor with the increase over the original deposit. There is no surer and no safer method of increasing a man's resources, than by depositing in an established and liberal Savings Bank. And among the many institutions of this kind in our city we know of none which we can more cheerfully commend to those who are desirous of trying to become wealthy by savings, than the Smithfield Savings Bank, located on Smithfield street, one door from Diamond alley.

Where to Insure.

Insurance Companies from abroad present their claims in such glowing colors that many of our citizens are induced to patronize them, and often, we are sorry to say, to their great detriment. Reputation is a jewel which home companies are careful to secure, and careful to maintain when once secured. Not so with foreign companies. Profit or present gain is often more to them than honesty or a good name, and many a one in insuring in such a company is but buying a law suit. Home Companies have greater inducements to be honest, and in them we should invest our risks. And now, having settled this fact, let us point you to a safe and reliable Company, located at No. 206 East Ohio street, Allegheny, and called the Teutonia.

Where to Get Good Furniture.

If there be any Household article, in regard to which we should exercise extreme care and caution in the purchase, that article is furniture. And yet how very few can be experts in judging of the quality of furniture. But it is not necessary that you should be, if you make your purchases of Joseph Meyer & Son, Nos. 412 and 414 Penn street (east of railroad crossing), as their manufactures are positively free from all deception, and nothing is sold for good which will not fill the bill to the very letter.

Are You a Little Dyspeptic?

Then if you are, let us give you a little recipe which will cost you nothing, and will, if faithfully followed out according to our directions, be more effectual in removing oppression from your stomach and gloom from your mind, than a hundred boxes of quinine pills. Our recipe is simply this:—Go to 165, 167 and 169 Liberty street, and when there you must take one of C. West's carriages, (it makes no difference whether you pay for it or not), and make daily evening journeys in said carriage from Pittburgh to East Liberty.

POLICE COMMITTEE.

Meeting Last Night—Pay Roll—Additional Men—Reporting Nominations—Tilt Between Patterson and Jeremy—Other Business.

A meeting of the Police committee was held last night in the Mayor's office.

Ex-Clerk Patterson presented the Police pay roll and the office bills for the month of July, as follows:

Police pay roll	$17,540 61
Office bills	589 83

Mr. Patterson, in compliance with a request from him, being granted permission to make a few remarks, said that he was going to leave the office, but was not running away, as he was still under bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars, which held him responsible for any shortcomings that might be discovered while the office was in his charge. He thanked the committee for the kindness that had always been extended to him.

Mr. Zern took the floor, and in reply made a few complimentary remarks in relation to Mr. Patterson, as to his worth both as an official and as a man. He moved that a vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Patterson.

Objections to any such proceeding were urged by Messrs. Jeremy and Harris, of the sub-committee engaged in investigating alleged irregularities. They opposed the passage of any vote of thanks as there were serious charges, they claimed, pending against Mr. Patterson, which should be cleared up before the Committee committed itself. Mr. Jeremy stated that Mr. Patterson had frequently insulted the sub-committee during its work of investigation, and from that allegation resulted a wordy altercation between Mr. Patterson and Mr. Jeremy.

Several others being opposed to the motion Mr. Zern withdrew it.

Mr. Trautman desired to know if it was not required of the Mayor that the names of all policemen appointed by him should be presented to the Police Committee for confirmation.

Mr. Zern stated that such was the case, and moved that the Mayor be directed to furnish the Committee with a list of all policemen on the force who had not been confirmed, to be forthcoming at the next meeting. Carried.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Pearson, Atterbury, and Jeremy was appointed to investigate and ascertain what amount of money was due from the city for rent for the armories of the various military organizations in the city.

Mr. John Moore stated that numerous complaints were made by citizens residing in the vicinity of Homewood station on the Pennsylvania Railroad, of lawless characters who subsist hen-roost robberies. That they confined their operations to that part of the city unguarded by police force, and that it being clearly a case of emergency, and the Mayor with the consent of the Police Committee, having power to appoint additional police in such cases he would move that the Mayor be instructed to appoint two policemen to have their headquarters at Homewood.

The Chairman said that similar complaints had been made to him and cited several depredations.

The motion was adopted.

The report of Mr. Jeremy, that the sub-committee engaged in the exhilirating work of investigating the clothing account was making progress, elicited hearty laughter.

The committee to which was referred the matter of the rent to be paid Deputy Mayor Barker for the use of his office, as well as the coal and gas bills, reported in favor of allowing him $200, the amount asked being $400. The recommendation was adopted.

Officer Watterman was allowed pay for twelve days in May when he was not on duty, having been incapacitated by injuries received while discharging his duties.

The petition referred to the committee by Councils asking for the removal of the country wagons on Fifth (formerly Pitt) street was referred to a special committee.

ALLEGHENY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

Special Meeting of Board of School Controllers to be Held.

On Friday evening next a special meeting of the Allegheny Board of School Controllers will be held, for the purpose of considering the resolution creating the office of Superintendent of Schools. According to an act of assembly the consideration of the creating of the office of Superintendent has to be done in special session. According to the new law and apportionment, Allegheny will receive $2,430 from the State, towards her schools, and as it is calculated to create the office at a salary of $2,000 per annum, it will be readily seen that the city will be still $430 ahead. At a previous meeting there seemed to be considerable opposition to the resolution, but it is thought that this opposition has been withdrawn, and that the office will be created, to the benefit of the city.

Helped Out of Trouble.

We fully appreciate the abhorrence which many persons entertain for the perplexity attending the selection of articles of clothing. Whether this will fade, or that will wear well, or the other will be becoming, are all questions that are to be considered; and it is a positive pleasure to step into a store where the assortment is complete and where the salesmen will represent his goods correctly, and help your hesitating taste with reliable suggestions. Such an establishment is that of Messrs. Thomas Scandrett & Co., No. 225 Liberty street, and by making your purchases there you will be helped out of trouble. There is nothing on their shelves which they will not guarantee. The selection embraces every variety of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Fine Dress Goods, Summer Wear, Underwear, Neckwear, &c., and everything in the line of Gentlemen's Goods. They can suit any patron, and will make up any order in the best style and at the lowest price. Those gentlemen who patronize the Old Beehive will never regret it.

It was made for a customer, but he did not have the money and could not take it, and that is the reason you have it offered so low. Well, now, look here. BOARD OF HEALTH.

Correspondence in Relation to Smoked White Fish.

A meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon, at the rooms in Municipal Hall. No business of importance was transacted, unless we except the order providing for the paving of the streets at the Point. The following correspondence between Meat Inspector Lindsay and Prof. Otto Wuth, in relation to the smoked white fish poisoning cases, which have been referred to in the newspapers, was also laid before the Board:

PROF. WUTH'S COMMUNICATION.

PITTSBURGH, July 30th, 1873.

T. W. LINDSAY, Meat Inspector of the City:

Dear Sir:—I have made a careful analysis of the so-called smoked white fish you handed to me some time ago, but with the exception of creosote I have not been able to discover any poison, neither inorganic nor organic. These fish do not seem to have been smoked at all, but treated with liquid creosote. It is very probable that the cases of poisoning by eating of these fish are attributable to the presence of cresote. The symptoms, as related to me do agree with those of cresote, as given by the standard works on toxicology.

Yours, Respectfully,
O. WUTH.

MR. LINDSAY'S LETTER.

To the Board of Health:

In view of the above facts, I would respectfully suggest that the Board take such action in the premises as may in the future prohibit the sale of such articles of diet, and thereby protect the public from all danger from this cause.

In my opinion, fish treated in this way, although they may not contain enough poison to seriously injure the persons using them as food, yet become putrid in so short a time in hot, summer weather, that this, in addition to the creosote employed in curing them, cannot but seriously damage the stomach and digestive organs, and produce all the symptoms noticed in those persons said to have been poisoned from this cause.

Respectfully,
T. W. LINDSAY.

Another meeting of the Board will be held this afternoon.

POLICE PARAGRAPHS.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

FANNY FOSTER has lodged an information before Alderman O'Donnell charging John Morrow with an indecent assault. The defendant was arrested and held in $1,500 bail to answer.

THE man James Dugan, who some time ago was arrested in Allegheny for abusing his child, was again arrested yesterday for cruelty to animals. He was caught on Irwin avenue, whipping a horse over the head with a club until the blood rushed from it. Deputy Mayor Neillie fined him ten dollars and costs.

JOHN JOHNSTON yesterday was fined fifty dollars and costs by Deputy Mayor Neillie for abusing his wife. He had struck her over the arm with a heavy club, and attempted to hit her on the head, when she warded off the blow, and screamed for assistance, which came in the shape of an officer. In default of payment he was sent sixty days to the work house.

THE TESTIMONY OF TRAVELERS.

All travelers who have tested the value of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an acclimating preparation and as a means of avoiding the painful and dangerous disorders of the bowels and the liver, which accrue from a change of water or unwholesome vapors, refer to it with enthusiasm as an unequalled preventive medicine. Wherever the atmospheric conditions are unfavorable to health and the water impure, this powerful tonic is indispensable alike to the settler and the transient sojourner. There was a time when raw brandy or whisky was almost universally used to qualify the waters of the western rivers, and the wells, &c., of the low lying districts of the south. Now, the liquors of commerce have been generally discarded by travelers and residents in these regions, and Hostetter's Bitters substituted in their stead. At this season when the sun is near the zenith, and the heat oppressive, two or three doses of the Bitters daily have a salutary effect on the appetite, the digestion and the spirits.
